

I got on Friedrich Schiller Highschool and on HTWD – both were my biggest wishes.

My big brown eyes and small full lips.

My skills in mathematics are not as so bad as I thought.

I can make people laugh sometimes.

I have never been on hard drugs and I have never been smoking pot.

I can handle stressful situations quite well.

I am a goal-oriented girl, ready to abolish any boundaries.

I love my parents, respect them and...although this might sound strange...I completely understand them.

I don't mind doing the washing, the smoothing and the cooking...I really like it in fact.

I can speak Czech, German and English.
